

The Black Belt Book of Life

Secrets of a Martial Arts Master

Table of Contents

Topic	#	Page
Author's Introduction		9
Martial Arts is Life	1	11
Your Life, Your Responsibility	2	13
Our Accomplishments Are Not Our Life . . .	3	17
Balance is Primary	4	21
Concentration is the First Key	5	25
To Become Everything We Must First . . .	6	29
You Must Win the Cross	7	31
Character is More Important than Victory	8	35
Character Must Precede Prowess	9	39
A Black Belt Without Humility is Like . . .	10	41
True Power Flows Not Shows	11	45
Competence Creates Confidence	12	47
Substance Before Symbol	13	51
The Road to Success is Paved with Failure	14	55
Strength is the Ability to Endure	15	61
Not To but Through	16	67
Preparation is the Key to Success	17	71
There Can Be No Excellence Without Effort	18	73
Rank Does Not Make the Man . . .	19	75
Control is the Mark of a Master	20	79
Diamond Casting	21	85
Perfect Speed	22	89
Maximize the Minimum	23	93
Perfect Practice	24	97
Concentration Coalesces	25	103
Y.O.Y.O.	26	109
The Way Out is In	27	113
Peace at any Price is not Peace, It's Slavery	28	117
Grown Ups, Own Up	29	121
Adapt or Die	30	125
Doing the Right Thing is the Right Thing to Do	31	129
We Compete to Test Our Skill, Not Expand . . .	32	133
It is Nothing to Begin, It Is Everything to Finish.	33	137
The "D" Line	34	141
The "C" Line	35	147
The Learning Process	36	155
The Live-Evil Riddle	37	159
The Secret of Greatness	38	163
Price and Sacrifice	39	165
Freedom and Oneness	40	169
Catalogue of Poems and Quotes		173
King		175
General Authors		185
Black Belts of the Kiado-Ryu		205
Richard Andrew King - Books		207